IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

CINCINNATI'S LABOR TROUBLES TO BEGIN MAY 1.

A Strike of Five Thousand Carriagemakers Almost Certain on That Date—Brassworkers Will Also Strike—Labor News from Other Points.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—A strike of gigantic proportions by the carriagemakers is almost certain May 1.

There are seventy-two carriage manufacturers in Cincinnati employing 5,000 hands.

Cincinnati is the largest carriage manufacturing center in the United States, and for that reason has been selected as the battleground for another of a series of battles between capital and labor.

Two weeks ago the carriage manufacturers organized a national trust at the Burnet house, of this city.

From good authority the "Jours" have reason to believe an attempt will be made on the part of the employees to ignore labor organizations.

Of the carriagemakers in Cincinnati 1,500 are members of District No. 48, Knights of Labor, and the others representatives of local union No. 3 of the International Carriagemakers' union.

In the almost certain event of trouble the knights and union will co-operate and fight as a single organization.

"The bosses will force the issue," said a master workman of one of their Knights of Labor assemblies. "We don't want to strike. We don't ask for an increase of wages, nor for fewer working hours constituting a day. All we ask is recognition as an organization. We must recognize their organization, and they in turn must recognize ours."

A National Knights of Labor district of carriagemakers will be organized at Workmen's hall next Monday evening.

There will be representatives from over two hundred assemblies of mixed Knights of Labor districts.

The withdrawal of the 1,000 carriagemakers will be a great loss to District No. 48.

The object of the transfer is for the purpose of putting themselves in proper fighting condition.

A. A. Carlton, of the general executive board, will likely organize the National district. It is possible that the business to be transacted will occupy several days. It will also be decided whether the employees shall declare a strike or suffer a lockout. It may embrace the whole state of Ohio.

There are 60,000 carriagemakers in the state, and a general strike is not at all improbable.

The brassworkers will also strike May 1. There are twenty-nine brass foundries in the city. The employees, about five hundred in number, are all members of a local assembly attached to District No. 48, Knights of Labor. The past year fifty-five hours constituted a week's work, as they were granted a half holiday Saturday afternoons. The bosses promise doing away with the half holiday feature after the pending agreement expires, May 1, and paying the same wages. District No. 48 has already indorsed the coming strike.

The Pittsburg Flint Glassworkers Happy.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 25.—The striking flint glassworkers in this city are rejoicing over another break in the manufacturers' ranks in the east. Information was received that Gill & Company's works at Philadelphia had started up yesterday, and also that Dunning Hammers' works at Brooklyn were again in operation. Altogether, about ninety men are employed. Both firms are said to be members of the Glass Manufacturers' association, and the break is considered an important one.

Both factories were started on the workmen's scale, which was signed by both for one year from date. There are now fifteen factories running in the east and sixteen closed. It is stated that there are now enough members of the union at work to pay the idle men their allowance without drawing on the treasury.

All Quiet at Braddock.

PITTSBURG, April 25.—Seven hundred men went to work at the Edgar Thomson steel works. Furnace "A" is in operation, and "B" will probably be started up within the next twenty-four hours. Superintendent Jones says he can get all the men he wants, and is refusing applications. The knights continue firm, and so far there have been no desertions from their ranks. There are no signs of an outbreak. The Pinkerton men and deputy sheriffs are still at the works, but the strikers are giving them no trouble and are keeping at a safe distance from the company's property.

No Signs of a Speedy Settlement.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The fight between the United Breweries' association and the locked out hands belonging to the Journeymen Breweries' union, shows no signs of a speedy termination. The men seem to be growing more bitter toward the bosses and are leaving nothing undone to make the boycott they have inaugurated against the beer of the United Breweries as effective as possible. This seems to be their only hope for bringing the bosses to terms. The situation up to noon to-day was practically unchanged.

Kentucky Feud Renewed.

MOUNT VERNON, Ky., April 25.—Tip and Henry Langford came into town Monday morning armed to the teeth, and bent on mischief. They spied Jack Adams riding up the street, and both of them commenced firing at him, emptying their revolvers, but not hurting him. This is the renewal of a feud which dates back for years. Partisans of the two sides are arming themselves, and bloody times may be looked for soon. Several of the Adams family and as many of the Langfords have been killed in previous meetings.

Washington Irving Bishop Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—W. Irving Bishop, the noted mind reader, is now an inmate of a private asylum in this city. He came to California several months ago, and he appeared to be partly demented. He gave exhibitions throughout the state until his nervous prostration compelled him to go to a sanatorium, where he will probably be compelled to remain for several months.

CINCINNATI'S NEW CITY HALL.

A New Building to Be Erected That Will Cost $1,000,000.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—The board of public affairs has authorized the issue of the $300,000 additional city building bonds, intended for the condemnation of Central avenue property.

City hall trustees had a very warm discussion as to whether the new city hall should face Plum or Central avenue.

NEW CITY HALL.

Architect Hannaford was present and warmly advocated the Central avenue side. He thought that by driving piles and using cement a solid foundation could be secured on that side.

No action was taken, as it is desired that the contractor shall present estimates on the cost of building a foundation of that character.

No city in the world of its size needs a building for city offices worse than Cincinnati. The present edifice used by the officials is totally unfit for the purpose. By a recent act of the legislature the authorities were authorized to issue bonds to the amount of $700,000 for the purpose of erecting a building adapted to the needs of the municipal government.

The cut above shows the front elevation as approved by the trustees. Since its adoption, however, a movement has been carried for the condemnation of property near the original site that will give more room for the building. This will afford room for a police station as well as all other offices required, and will be a vast improvement on the dingy and filthy apartments that have disgraced the Queen City for so many years.

FAIRCHILD'S VIEWS.

He Opposes the Issuing of Fractional Currency—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Secretary Fairchild appeared before the senate finance committee, at the request of the committee, to present his views on the bill, which has passed the house providing for the issue of fractional currency. The secretary strongly opposed the bill. He asserted that previous issues of fractional currency had cost in the expense of production, and the loss from destruction as much as the entire face value of the average circulation maintained.

He did not believe that public convenience required a reissue, nor that it would be popular. Fractional silver and the postal note system met all purposes which fractional notes could serve except by a very large issue, extending to the most remote parts of the country, and requiring years in its preparation. The cost and great loss incident to such an issue, and its manifest disadvantages, which had led to its abandonment, were to his mind conclusive reasons against a renewal of such circulation.

Glover Entitled to the Seat.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The report of the elections committee in the Missouri contested election case of Frank vs. Glover was submitted to the house. It finds that Mr. Glover, the sitting member, is entitled to his seat.

Sherman Will Go to Pittsburg.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Senator Sherman will leave here on Thursday night for Pittsburg, where he will attend the celebration of the birthday of Gen. Grant on Friday.

Was Spoiling For a Fight.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 25.—A killing occurred at Shelby, Miss., a small station on the Louisville, New Orleans & Texas railroad, last Saturday, under the following circumstances: A feud had existed for some time between two men named Oglesby and Hanbury. The latter had repeatedly threatened to whip Oglesby, and on Saturday went to Oglesby's house for that purpose. He found the door locked, and proceeded to kick it open. Just as he had accomplished this and stepped inside, he was fired upon by Oglesby with a double-barrelled shotgun, and instantly killed, the contents of both barrels entering his face and breast.

Robert Garrett Improving.

BALTIMORE, April 25.—Letters received here under date of Cairo, Egypt, March 31, report Mr. Robert Garrett there, much improved in health, travel having had a very beneficial effect on his mind. The party made an extended trip up the Nile. They were to sail from Alexandria, April 4, for Athens. From there they will go to Constantinople—after which they visit Russia for a short time. They expect to return to America in September.

Death of Boston's Oldest Druggist.

BOSTON, April 25.—Joseph T. Brown, the oldest druggist in Boston, died yesterday, aged seventy-eight. He was born in Little Compton, R. I. In 1831 he established a drug store in Boston. His three brothers, now dead, also established at different times, drug stores in Washington street, and for years here four stores monopolized almost all the fashionable retail drug trade of the city. The deceased leaves a widow, a son and daughter.

Couldn't Wait.

COOPER, Tex., April 25.—B. A. Boydston shot Miss Lula Frazier, Sunday afternoon, fatally, and then blew out his brains. The young lady is eighteen years of age and was engaged to Boydston. They were to have been married last Saturday night. The young lady postponed the marriage, which was the cause of the trouble.

SULLIVAN, THE CHAMPION,

ARRIVES SAFELY IN BOSTON AND IS HEARTILY WELCOMED.

He Immediately Issues a Challenge to Any Man in the World to Fight in a Sixteen-Foot Ring—He is Anxious to Meet Either Kilrain or Mitchell, or Both.

BOSTON, April 25.—The Catalonia with John L. Sullivan aboard, came into view at 6:40 a. m. At 7 o'clock the tug boats, Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark and Elsie, started out with a freight of sporting men to meet the champion. The party included Manager Phillips, J. A. St. John, Pete McCoy, Patsy Kerrigan, Paddy Duffy and Joe Lannon. The tugs met the steamer just before 8 o'clock. Sullivan stood on the bridge, his face bronzed by the voyage and looking the picture of health. The scores of sporting men waved handkerchiefs and hats and sent up cheer after cheer, while the tugs whistled a greeting. Sullivan doffed his hat and the hundreds of people on the steamer's deck, catching the enthusiasm, joined in the cheering.

As the tugs accompanied the ship to Quarantine, greetings were shouted across between Sullivan and friends, whom he recognized. At Quarantine Sullivan left the steamer for the tug, where he was received with renewed cheering. The band played, the Catalonians gave a farewell hurrah and the tugs started for the shore.

On arriving at the wharf Sullivan, his backer, Mr. Phillips, his father and Sylvia Gookin, the carman, entered a carriage in waiting and were driven up town amid the cheers and other salutations of the hundreds, who had gathered on the sidewalks.

Sullivan, accompanied by his manager and backer, Harry Phillips, called at the Globe office, and issued the following challenge:

"Now that I have returned to Boston, I want my countrymen to understand that I stand ready to fight any man in the world a finish battle in a sixteen-foot ring, for any part of $10,000 a side. I would prefer to meet Mitchell or Kilrain, or both, as I want to take the conceit out of both. When I sign articles for another fight it will be generally understood that it is to be a battle and not a foot race. Both Mitchell and Kilrain will be given a fair show in this country, and I am convinced that there is not the least chance for me to fight either of them in Europe. Should they fail to make good their boasts, and come to this country and give exhibitions as they propose to do, I will follow them all over the country and drive them out of it or make them fight. This challenge will remain open until the time of the arrival of Mitchell and Kilrain which is supposed to be about the 1st of June next.

"JOHN L. SULLIVAN,
"Champion of the World."

Why Ward Went to Boston.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Sun says that the visit of Short Stop Ward to Boston was for the purpose of being present at the wedding of Tim Keefe, pitcher of the New Yorks, to Mrs. Clara Helm, sister of Mrs. Ward.

Manufacturing Industries.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The following is a summary showing the progress of the manufacturing industries of the country, including incorporated companies, buildings, etc., as reported to New Enterprises for the week ending April 21, 1888: Buildings costing over $5,000 each, 170, $6,519,567; bridges, 15, $897,100; churches, 59, $1,346,000; electric light companies and new plants, 13, $740,000; gas companies, 5, $256,000; manufacturing companies, 73, $3,163,000; mills, factories, etc., 114, $2,284,000; mining companies, 14, $21,930,000; railroads and extensions, 5, $3,200,000; water works, 7, $1,120,000.

Suicided Rather Than Move.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 25.—About 8 o'clock Monday morning Mrs. Laura L. Gaskell, aged thirty-nine years, committed suicide at her home on Vincennes street by taking morphine. The poison was purchased at the drugstore of D. Garry, on Vincennes street, only a short distance from the home of the suicide. The only reason to be assigned for the act was that the family were compelled to move from their present residence, the house having been sold only a few days ago, and the suicide, being very much attached to the place, had declared that she would never leave the house alive.

Caught in the Machinery.

FINDLAY, O., April 25.—Edward Colvin, an employee of the Deweyville state factory, met with a horrible accident Monday evening. While standing near a shaft his clothing caught in the belting, and in a second he was wound around the machinery, which lacerated him in a fearful manner, breaking bones in different parts of his body and otherwise injuring him so badly that when the machinery was stopped and he was extricated he was in an unconscious condition, and cannot live. He is a young man without a family.

Fatal Duel With Knives.

WINCHESTER, Ky., April 25.—Mat Tevis and George Lee, living in Pointerville, a colored suburb of this city, had a duel with knives, during the progress of which Tevis was stabbed in the region of the kidney, from the effects of which he will die. Policeman B. F. Allen arrested Lee, and while on the way to the jail he attempted to escape, when Allen shot him in the back, inflicting a severe and perhaps fatal wound. Both Lee and Tevis are colored.

Fred. Roth's Sentence.

WOOSTER, O., April 25.—Judge Nicholas sentenced Fred. Roth for manslaughter, to which Roth, who was twice indicted and once convicted for first degree murder, pleaded guilty several days ago. The sentence aggregates twenty years in the penitentiary, ten years solitary confinement and ten hard labor.

Cleveland Indorsed.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Young Men's Democratic club last night adopted unanimously a resolution indorsing Grover Cleveland as a candidate for renomination to the presidency.

Died at the Age of Ninety.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 25.—Governor Julius Gatlin, a prominent retired merchant and politician, died yesterday at the age of ninety.

THE FIRE RECORD.

St. Cloud, Minnesota, Has a Heavy Loss. Fires Elsewhere.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 25.—A special from St. Cloud, Minn., to the Dispatch says: The most destructive fire for some years occurred here this morning. It broke out in the Manitoba coal sheds and 1,700 tons of coal, six cars and a loading apparatus were destroyed and the water tank was rendered useless, involving a loss of $15,000. The firemen worked well.

A Stockyard Fire.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 25.—The extensive horse barn and mule pens and storage building of the Stockyards company were destroyed by fire last night. Twenty-two head of horses, among them a stallion valued at $1,000 were burned, and a large amount of hay and feed was also destroyed. The total loss will approximate $30,000; fully insured.

Prairie Fires in Dakota.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 25.—An Aberdeen, Dak., special to the Journal, says: Prairie fires are raging in this vicinity and throughout the county. The wind is blowing a gale and it is feared that great damage will be done to property.

A $25,000 Nebraska Fire.

VALENTINE, Neb., April 25.—Fire last night, which started in a saloon, destroyed about $25,000 worth of property. The Montgomery hotel, Sparks Brothers' store and the Cherry county bank are all burned.

GRANT'S BIRTHDAY.

It Will be Celebrated at Pittsburgh by a Distinguished Gathering.

PITTSBURG, April 25.—The banquet of the American club, to be held at the Monongahela house, next Friday evening, in honor of the birthday of Gen. U. S. Grant, will undoubtedly be the most successful dinner, as far as the assembling of distinguished men of the Republican party is concerned, ever held in this city. The guests who have so far accepted the invitations and who will be in the city on Friday morning are:

Senator John Sherman, of Ohio; Senator J. D. Cameron and Mathew Quay, of Pennsylvania; ex-Senator Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana; Col. Fred. D. Grant, Hon. Richard Smith, J. P. Foster, president of the Republican league of the United States, and Andrew B. Humphrey, secretary of the league, both of New York; Governor James A. Beaver, Lieutenant Governor W. T. Davies, secretary of the Commonwealth; Hon. C. W. Stone, Hon. John Dalzell, Adjt. D. H. Hastings, Gen. Martin Beem, of Chicago, and Hon. John C. New, of Indianapolis. Among the letters of regret is one from the late Hon. Roscoe Conkling.

RAGING RIVERS.

The Galena, in Illinois, and the Fox, in Wisconsin, on the Rampage.

GALENA, Ill., April 25.—The freshest in Galena river has resulted in considerable damage thus far, and it is feared that a far greater loss will follow should there be no abatement of the floods within the next thirty-six hours. The water is now rising at the rate of twelve inches every twenty-four hours.

The Highest Ever Known.

KAUKAUNA, Wis., April 25.—The Fox river is higher than was ever before known. The banks are level full. There is much alarm felt about the dam, and it is feared that a section of it will go out.

A Dying Girl's Statement.

CHICAGO, April 25.—A San Francisco special to the Tribune says: Ida Addis, a Los Angeles girl, who has made some reputation as a writer, publishes a dying statement, in which she confirms a rumor that ex-Governor Downey, a wealthy old Californian, is held in custody by his relatives, who permits no one except his heirs to see him. The girl was engaged to be married to Downey, but some relatives filed the old man with whisky and have since kept him in confinement. Miss Addis was solicited to sue for breach of promise, but refused. She is now in Mexico dying of consumption. Her statement has caused a sensation as it affects some of the best known people in San Francisco.

Ohio G. A. R. Encampment.

TOLEDO, O., April 25.—The annual encampment of Department of Ohio, G. A. R., begins here April 25, and continues three days. The local posts and citizens generally have worked hard making preparations to give the veterans a fitting welcome. A large number of G. A. R. visitors are expected from southern Ohio aside from the regular delegates, as the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad has made the fare for the round trip from Cincinnati to this point for $5.95. The Woman's Relief corps holds its state encampment here at the same time.

Caught and Innocent Man.

OSGOOD, Ind., April 25.—Robert Hamilton, a farmer living in Washington township, this county, has been losing a great deal of tobacco of late by thieves. A few days since he placed a loaded shot gun behind the door of the old house, which he uses for a storeroom. Sunday Alvin Dodson, an honest neighbor, was passing that way, when, overtaken by a storm, and attempting to enter the house for shelter, received the full charge of shot in the breast, from which he died in the afternoon. He leaves a family.

Strong Reasons If True.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—A motion to set aside the verdict and for a new trial was made by the Adams Express company yesterday in the Fotheringham case, on the ground that the verdict was against evidence; the amount excessive; the jury was controlled by popular prejudices against corporations and detectives; that Fotheringham acted voluntarily; that certain testimony was ruled out that should have been admitted, and that the court erred in instructing the jury.

Music Hath Charms.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—The first choice of seats for the coming May festival here brought $150 premium at auction. This is considerably higher than first choice brought for the last May festival two years since. The festival begins this year Tuesday evening, May 22, and 2,300 tickets have been subscribed for, and the total premium paid on 445 seats sold the first day amounted to nearly $4,000.

AFTER TOM HENRY.

Doings of the Legislature of Local and General Interest—Some of Tate's Tricks.

The House has repealed that section of the pleuro-pneumonia bill, which appropriates $3,000 to pay for diseased cattle killed by direction of the State Board of Health.

A resolution has been adopted that the House shall hereafter hold afternoon sessions on Tuesday and Friday of each week for the consideration of general bills only.

Representative Wood—a Democrat—introduced the following joint resolution in the House:

WHEREAS, Thomas J. Henry was on the first Monday, in August, 1882, legally elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, and on the first day of September, 1882, qualified as such and entered upon the discharge of the duties of said office.

WHEREAS, There are underground mutterings and strong rumors current throughout the Commonwealth that said Henry has for years past absented himself from said office and failed to give his personal attention to the work and duties of said office, and wholly neglected the same, therefore be it

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, that a committee of three be appointed, two by the House and one by the Senate, to be appointed by the respective speakers, to investigate said office and ascertain how the same is being conducted and determine whether said Henry has been guilty of any misfeasance or malfeasance in office, and whether or not there are any irregularities in office, and whether said office has been sold or let to farm contrary to statute laws made and provided in such cases. Said committee shall have the right and power to summon and swear witnesses and report immediately to this General Assembly.

Colonel T. G. Poore, who is connected with the office, when told of the resolution, said: "We are ready for an investigation, and have nothing to fear. It will be shown that the business of Colonel Henry's office is transacted by his regularly appointed and duly qualified deputies."

The commissioners, who lately overhauled the State Treasury, were expected to report to the Legislature yesterday, but it has not been learned yet whether they did or not. The Louisville Times' correspondent says, among other things, "the report will expose the fraud which Tate practiced in 1886 to obtain a settlement at the end of his term January 4. Early in the month mentioned, Mr. Tate received from Charles Godshaw, the trustee of the jury fund at Louisville, two checks aggregating about $90,000. Without reporting immediately to the Auditor, as he should have done, Mr. Tate took the checks to the bank, depositing, as the record then shows, the larger one January 5, the small January 7. The biennial adjustment of accounts was delayed several days, and before it occurred Tate took his bank book and in reference to these deposits altered January 5 to read January 3, and January 7 to read January 4. The fact of the alteration has been established under the magnifying glasses, and further comparison with the office book and the bank ledger. The amount of the deposit was in the hands of the bank teller, and the alteration of the dates had been so skillfully made that nothing was in view to excite suspicion. Accordingly Mr. Tate, having purposely delayed in reporting the Godshaw checks to the Auditor, made it appear that the amount on hand in bank belonged to the fund ante-dating January 4, and the statement from the bank with dates altered so, showed Tate did not report Godshaw's return to the Auditor's office till January 7, and it was discounted by General Hewitt, of course, in the record for the new term. With the Godshaw receipt Tate had enough in bank to make his accounts balance. It is manifest that fraud was employed to procure the settlement which under the circumstances amounted to no settlement at all. This year Mr. Godshaw, instead of remitting to Tate, sent his checks to Auditor Hewitt. Otherwise the fraud of two years ago might have been repeated."

The investigation at Frankfort has established one fact pretty clearly, and that is that "Honest Dick" Tate is one of the slickest rascals the State has ever turned out. He carried enough of the people's money away with him to keep him in ease and luxury the rest of his days.

"Texas menaces by her monstrous territory the interest of other sections of the country," is a remark made by Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, a few days ago in a speech on the tariff question. Just what Mr. Spooner meant no one knows but himself, and it is doubtful whether he does. However, Texas is taking things easy with that big $3,000,000 surplus in her treasury and doesn't seem disposed to molest anybody.

STATE FORESTRY ASSOCIATION.

A Meeting to be Held in Louisville May 4th, to Perfect an Organization.

A short time since, an informal meeting of the friends of forestry was held at the office of the Polytechnic Society of Louisville for the purpose of taking steps toward the organization of a Kentucky State Forestry Association. It was decided that a meeting for the formal organization should be held on Friday evening, May 4th, at 7:30 p. m. in the hall of the Polytechnic Society. At this meeting, an address will be delivered upon the subject of forestry, by the Hon. B. E. Fernon, Chief of Forestry Division, Department of Agriculture, and a number of gentlemen of this State will make remarks upon the subject.

The subject of forestry is one which is attracting more and more interest in this country from the fact, that though the timber supplies seem at present inexhaustible yet, at the present rate of destruction, the supply will in a very few years become completely exhausted. In our own State, as the mountain regions of the eastern counties are being rapidly opened up, the forests are being as rapidly destroyed, and if protective measures be not soon taken, this magnificent timber region will be denuded of its trees at no distant day.

Further, our railroads are constantly demanding a large supply of timber for ties, which, it is claimed, can be rapidly grown in most sections of our State, at a minimum of expense, and at no inconsiderable profit. These and other reasons, which will be brought out in the future, have rendered the organization of a Forestry Association in our State a great desideratum.

Mr. Fernon is well known as one of the best informed men in the country on the subject of forestry, and his address will be full of interest and profit to the people of the State. Any queries or communications on the subject may be addressed to the committee through Judge A. M. Brown, Elizabethtown, Ky., or Dr. James Lewis Howe, Louisville, Scientist to Polytechnic Society.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The Lexington Press says: "Colonel Horace Means stated Monday that the outlook for tobacco plants was not promising, as the late frosts had injured them to a considerable extent. Many beds were not canvassed and the plants are not coming up at all."

Wood ashes are one of the best possible fertilizers for young trees, whether fruit or ornamental trees. It should not be put directly on the roots, but worked into the soil, as it is filled in after the tree has been set. Land plaster might also be used in the same way, either alone or in connection with the wood ashes. The ashes and plaster might also be broadcasted about the trees and plowed or spaded in.

Breeding and raising the trotting horse is becoming of more general interest every day, and, properly conducted and managed, is a profitable and remunerative business. In fact, breeding and rearing any kind of stock ought to be made profitable. Success is the aim of all breeders, and the only way to attain it is to secure breeding stock from tried strains of blood. Those who breed to the best trotting-bred families can sell their stock for good prices, no matter how hard the times are.—Samuel Gamble.

Religious News.

There were forty conversions at the M. E. Church, Manchester, O., last week.

The Episcopal Church building fund is more than $121,000; it is to be made a million.

The adherents of Christianity now outnumber the adherents of any other faith. Mohammedanism is fading away.

The Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board reports eleven months' receipts to April 1 of $675,287, which is $92,270 ahead of last year.

Elder Zach Sweeney's meeting at Columbus, Ind., Christian Church, continues with unabated and even increasing interest. Over 240 persons have united with the church.

Chang Sing, the first Chinaman who ever united with the Baptist Church at Chicago, was baptized and received into membership last Sunday. The Chicago Methodists number several of the celestials among their numbers, and one belongs to the Presbyterian Church.

The Southern Baptist Convention will meet this year May 18, at Richmond, Va. Round trip tickets from Lexington have been reduced to $18. Special train will pass there at 6 p. m., May 9th. You can obtain full information from J. T. Slade, of Lexington, in regard to sleeping cars.

John G. Wadsworth's big lime-kiln on "Buffalo Trace," was fired yesterday, and a large quantity of lime will be turned out this season.

EMERY WHITAKER.

The State Board of Equalization raised the assessment of real estate in Shelby County 32 per cent. this year. It looks just a little like Shelby has been trying to shift her share of the burden of taxation to the shoulders of her sister counties.

PARTIES at Richmond, Ky., have lately invested some of their cash in forty thousand acres of land in the coal, timber and iron region of Breathitt and Magoffin counties. In a few years they will be able to retire from business and spend the rest of their days in ease.

A SMALL blaze was discovered about 8 o'clock last evening on the roof of the building occupied by William Hunt as a cigar store, on the east side of Market street, between Second and Front. The alarm was sounded, but the flames were extinguished before the fire department could get to work. A spark from a burning chimney had fallen on the roof and started the blaze. The damages are but trifling.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

GERMANTOWN.

John B. Thompson, of Covington, is spending a season with his aged and afflicted father. His son will remain for some time.

John Wheeler, accompanied by R. D. Power, Tuesday last, went to the mill and purchased a stock of dry goods.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Buffington, our leading milliners, have received their spring stock with all the latest styles and fashions.

W. D. Pinckard and wife have set up to housekeeping in the property of O. M. Dora. Tommie Tyler is at Paris, Ky.

John Harmon had three fingers cut by a circular saw at his mill on Tuckahoe Ridge. He had his wound dressed at Ripley, where he is at this time.

Elder Stafford filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday, and will hold a protracted meeting this week at Lawrence Creek Church.

Peach crop slightly injured in low grounds, but there will be an abundant crop of fruit of all kinds, if no future injury.

James Bullock, Jr., and Duke Elliott started on Tuesday for Bourbon County to enter the carpenter's trade.

S. D. Ridgdon is in the city this week buying goods. His wife is visiting Mrs. Kate Calvert, at Mill Creek, during his absence.

Cigarettes Killed Him.

[Bridgeport (Conn.) Special to N. Y. Times.] The body of young Josephus D. Melins will be taken to Utica, N. Y., for burial. He died from cigarette smoking. He lived at No. 174 Broad street, opposite to Chief of Police Marsh. Chief Marsh had repeatedly talked to the lad, who was but seventeen years of age, about the habit he was addicted to, and which was slowly killing him. Young Melins seemed bent upon increasing the daily number of cigarettes until his average amounted to nearly five packs. He inhaled the smoke, diseasing his lungs. At the last he wasted away rapidly.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco: Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 28,915 lbs. Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,269 lbs., with receipts of 516 lbs. for the same period. Our market has not developed any new features during the week on burley tobacco. The decline in prices which occurred some weeks ago will have the effect, in many localities, of materially curtailing the crop from the cultivation which were made during the winter. It is also true that in many districts considerable complaint is made as to the failure of seed to come up.

CHARLETON B. CLIFT had two horses taken Saturday night from his premises on the Mt. Sterling pike a few miles from this city. The animals were ridden to Flemingsburg by three men, where they were left. Mr. Clift has since recovered his property.

W. H. FREDERICK has leased a lot on the west side of Commerce street, between Second and Third, from Robert A. Cochran, and is erecting a one-story frame building for a carpenter shop. His old shop on Second street, Fifth ward, is being torn down and removed.

THE Bourbon News says: Mr. Duke Watson, of Shannon, Mason County, paid this office a call Friday afternoon, while en route to Cynthiana. He reports preparations for a large tobacco crop in that section, but bad luck to the plant beds—a mysterious bug having ruined many beds.

THE new town Huntington and some Covington capitalists are building on the line of the Maysville & Big Sandy, at Twelve Mile in Campbell County has been named Oneonda, after the birthplace of the railroad king. Designs for the depot at that point call for an elegant building forty feet wide and one hundred feet long.

COLONEL WARNOCK, formerly of this city, is rendering some very efficient work now as depot policeman at Paris, in calling out trains and regulating things in the passenger departments, says the Bourbon News. Strangers are saved much trouble, for in him they find a courteous gentleman always ready to answer questions and show them the right trains to get on.

MAYSVILLE MANUFACTORY.

Proving a Profitable Enterprise—Business Increasing and New Machinery Being Put In.

The Maysville Manufactory on Second street in the lower end of town is just now enjoying a healthy boom. It has been in operation for three or four years, and has demonstrated the fact that such industrial enterprises can live and thrive right here in Maysville. It has proved a profitable investment, for some of the cash that would otherwise have likely remained stored away in the vaults of our banks, and has furnished employment and is furnishing employment to a number of skilled workmen, who otherwise would most probably have moved to other places. Industries of this character are needed to build up any town and the more diversified these enterprises are the better for the city. Of course the larger the enterprise the more good it does the city in a business sense, but if large factories can not be obtained, then let's have small ones. If managed properly they will grow. "Tall oaks from little acorns grow." The largest industrial enterprise in this city, at present, one known all through the South and one whose goods find a sale in foreign markets was started years ago on a very modest scale. The completion of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad should mark the beginning of a steady healthy boom for our thrifty and beautiful city, and it will, if the men of means arouse themselves and take hold of the matter.

The Maysville Manufactory gives employment to twelve or fifteen hands right along, but these, with the improved machinery with which the establishment is fitted up, do the work no doubt at least three times that many. Although it is generally known as "the furniture factory," yet the making of furniture is the least part of their business. In case a dull season comes on, which generally happens during the winter, then the hands are employed in the manufacture of furniture, for which a ready sale has always been found. The principal work of the establishment is the manufacture of verandas, doors, door-frames, window frames, stairways, ornamental wood-work of buildings and store fixtures. A ready market is found for the product. The factory is busy now, and has a large number of orders ahead. One other item of the work they turn out is a reel used at the Maysville Cotton Mills, on which to wind the heavier twines or ropes made there. About 2,000 of these reels are manufactured every month.

The manufactory is in better running order than ever before, and it is claimed to be the most complete establishment of the kind in this section of the State. Some new machinery has lately been put in and the factory now operates two rip saws, two cut-off saws, one surfacer, one four-side moulder, one universal wood-worker, one moulder, one six-inch moulder, one frizzer, one tenon machine, one blind-style moulder and borer, one blind-slat tenon machine, one band saw, one jig saw, one turning lathe, one Mills gaining and tenon machine, one sand-papper and one fancy wood carving machine. This machinery is all of the latest and most approved make. The sand-papper has recently been put in. It is the Nichols patent and is of very simple design of the disc pattern. With it a boy can do the work of three men. A Francis drum sandpaperer has been ordered, and will be added to the machinery now on hand. A Sturtevant drying kiln has been bought and will be put up shortly just west of the factory and adjoining it. The kiln has been found necessary in order to insure a supply of thoroughly seasoned lumber at all times. It has a capacity of drying 15,000 feet of green lumber in ten days. This is the most important addition contemplated at present.

The manufactory is operated by a company of which W. S. Frank is President. Lud Mills, an experienced carpenter and builder, is Superintendent.

Rev. W. H. HOPSON, formerly one of the most distinguished ministers of the Christian Church in this State, died at the home of his son-in-law, Rev. R. Lin Cave, Nashville, at 7:30 Friday night.

THE nuptials of Mr. Cadmus B. Williams and Miss Hannah Morton Duke will be celebrated this evening at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Poyntz, on Front street. The attendants will be Miss Lizzie Poyntz and Mr. J. O. Dugan, the latter of Louisville. Rev. D. D. Chapin will officiate.

A. C. REAPERS, P. M.

Knights Templar Notes.

The parade on the 9th of next month promises to be one of the grandest ever witnessed here. Delegates from twenty-three commanderies are expected to take part. Six bands will furnish music for the occasion viz: First Regiment Band, Cincinnati; Eichorn's Band, Louisville; Cynthiana Commandery Band; Saxton's Band, Lexington; Ironton Band and Hancock's Reed and Brass Band.

The nobles of the Mystic Shrine from Cincinnati and other points will be here on the 11th of May. The camels will be sent on two days previous to that.

Colonel Frank S. Owens will have a handsome Knight Templar banner—12 by 24 feet in size—stretched across the street in front of Owens & Barkley's during the conclave. Geo. T. Simonds will have a similar banner in front of the Central Hotel.

A large gar arch in which will be exhibited some of the symbols of the order is being erected over Third street in front of the Temple.

Maysville Horse Market.

The following list of sales and shipments have been made by Mose Daulton & Bro., of West Second street, since our last report: To Robt. Anderson, Cincinnati, O., one bay coach horse; to W. Reese Dobyns, Procter, O., one brown driver; to Ed Martin, of Brown County, O., for Boston market, one pair bay coach geldings; to same one dapple grey driver; to same, one roan driver; to John Lemon, of Philadelphia, one brown driver, by Goldsmith Star; to Dr. Hord, of this county, King W. brown stallion, five years old, 16 hands high, dam by Brutus, he by Brutus Clay, an imported English coach horse; to Walters & Lemon, Philadelphia, Pa., one bay road horse; to same, one brown driver, (for D. B. Mitchell, Helena.)

The firm has lately shipped for Ed. Martin, nine head to Boston, Mass.; for John Lemon, seven head to Philadelphia, Pa.; for S. G. Coffin, Bradford, Pa., eighteen head; for D. B. Mitchell of Helena, to Pete McGowan, Dayton, O., two head.

SOME months ago a party working in the lumber camp of Wm. Coach, on the Sturgeon river, ordered thirty-one tenth tickets in the Louisiana State Lottery. One of these was a tenth of ticket No. 71,575, which won the first prize of $150,000 in the drawing of the 7th of February, giving the handsome sum of $15,000 to be divided. There were sixteen in the club, the tickets being sent to George J. Johnson, of Baraga. Three of the holders were of one family, being John Bodwein, his wife and child, who thus secured a good share.—L'Anse (Mich.) Sentinel, March 3.

THE DECREE OF THE POPE

NATIONALISTS INTERVIEWED AS TO ITS EFFECTS.

France Threatened by the Boulanger Movement—Paris Alarmed and the Warring Factions Frightened—Roumanian Troubles—General Foreign News.

LONDON, April 25.—A number of Nationalist members of parliament were interviewed to-day regarding the report that Pope Leo intends issuing a condemnation of the plan of campaign and the practice of boycotting in Ireland, and forbidding his people to follow the directions of the National league in these matters. All the members seen expressed it as their opinion that this request was simply a revival of like statements made from time to time by the Tory press for the purpose of influencing English votes, and, if possible, to intimidate the Irish voters who were struggling hard against the government's measures in the unequal fight for their liberty.

"Why should the pope do this?" asked one of the members. "It is far more consistent to my mind to think that the pope is inclined to favor Ireland rather than to array himself on England's side against her. In the first place, consider the numbers of Catholics who are in Ireland, and who, in spite of their poverty, give not only faithfully but very largely to the support of the church. They constitute the trust of the pope's people to-day, and nowhere would his holiness find a safer and better asylum from possible persecution, or more devoted defenders than in this same Ireland. Besides these considerations the pope would hardly, for the sake of pleasing England, proceed in a direction contrary to that indicated in the various reports he has had from different authorities on Ireland."

"Mr. Perce's report of Ireland was favorable in most respects, and he certainly did not advise the pope to interfere with the legitimate means of warfare employed by the people. Cardinals Newman and Gibbons have both made favorable reports to the pope in regard to Ireland, but perhaps the strongest and best of all was that of Cardinal Manning's, who told Pope Leo that if he was an Irishman, living in Ireland to-day, he would consider himself justified in joining the plan of campaign, and of doing just what the people were doing there in defense of their rights. The idea that the Duke of Norfolk went to Rome to influence the pope in these matters has no foundation in fact. He merely conveyed the congratulations of Queen Victoria to his holiness on his first visit, and his subsequent visit was a personal one."

The Boulanger Movement.

PARIS, April 25.—The effect of the Boulanger excitement has been to impress all republican factions for the time being with a fear that the republic may go by the board, and to consolidate for the common purpose of opposing Boulanger nearly all the factions of the center and left. Both the Royalist and Imperial factions see some hope for themselves in the general's movements, and so have resolved to support him up to a point that may result, as they hope, in governmental confusion.

In the chamber a very unfortunate test was made in the interest of Boulanger by the Royalist, Comte de Martineprey, who offered an interpellation declaring want of confidence in the war minister, De Freycinet. The latter is not a Radical, and consequently the center was a unit in favor of the order of the day which followed, expressing confidence in the war minister. It was carried by a vote of 377 to 175.

The strength manifested by Boulanger, not in the departments only, but in Paris, where it is rumored that the police force is in sympathy with him, has alarmed the municipal government, which Monday engaged in a prolonged and violent discussion and concluded by adopting an order of the day opposing a plebiscite condemning the Boulanger campaign and declaring that the council is ready to place itself at the head of the people in order to save their liberties and preserve the republic. A vote of confidence in the ministry was also adopted.

There is little question that the French republic is in great danger, and if there is not mutual concession made to each other's views by the moderate and Radical Republicans of all factions, it will have little chance of surviving the storm that has come upon it. The motions to abolish the senate and also the office of president through the revision of the constitution have been referred to a committee. How the cat will jump depends upon the manner in which these matters will be dealt with by the chamber.

Gen. Boulanger has adopted a red carnation as an emblem. It is proposed that his followers wear the flower.

Queen Victoria Visits Frederick III.

BERLIN, April 25.—Queen Victoria arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. No official reception was given her in deference to her wishes. Empress Victoria, Crown Prince William, Prince Henry and the Grand Duke of Baden met her at the station, and she was driven immediately to Charlottenburg. The queen visited Emperor Frederick soon after her arrival. The doctors feared lest the visit would excite and upset the patient, but it proved otherwise, and no bad results followed. The emperor's temperature remained normal throughout the visit.

Most of the papers here welcome Queen Victoria to Berlin. The Post says: "The nation offers mute yet respectful homage to the sovereign of a great and friendly state who has come to visit the sickbed of our suffering emperor."

Troubles in Roumania.

BUCHAREST, April 25.—Copies of a revolutionary proclamation have been found in the possession of peasants in several villages of Moldavia. The authorship of the proclamation has been traced to a Socialist professor, who proved to have been connected with the Russian Anarchists when the czar was assassinated. The man has been arrested.

At the bottom of all agitation, however, are Russian agents. She has a considerable proportion of Slav population to work upon, and the extreme hate which the peasantry bears toward the exclusive and wealthy boyar class.

An Editor's Queer Actions.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 25.—Editor B. F. Dilley, of Kingston, who mysteriously disappeared about a month ago, and who was supposed to have been murdered, is alive and well. He is in Denver, Col., and will leave there to-morrow for home. It is believed that he is temporarily insane.
